I run my business instead of letting my business run me

I carve out time every year to plan and enhance my business

I time-block what's most important and do not let the urgency of others take me off track

I respect my own time as much as I respect other peoples' time

I set goals every year that include my personal life, family life, spiritual life & financial life

I have a system for knowing how much I spend, on what, and how profitable I am

If you answered false to 2 or more of the above...register for CRS 103...We can help.
